Dear Florence,

Do you love me
or do you not
you told me once
but I have forgot.

Dear Florence,

Don't fall down stairs,
Don't fall down cellar
And for goodness sakes
Don't fall in love with some other girlies' feller!

Sincerely,
Lorena

Miss Orel Daves gave a delightful farewell party on the lawn of her home last Tuesday evening for several of her high school friends. Various out door games were enjoyed as well as the dainty refreshments, an ice course served following the games. About twenty-six guests were present to enjoy the event.

Farewell - notivas only a meeting for me. I wore lavender organdie and I left like "the last rose of summer". All the good bunch was there and then some. Sack races, chewing tobacco, solos, duets, octettes - ??? and sugar bowls. Peba, Dorothy, and "Sweet Bunch of Love" ran off - not far, we stayed a while - went thru the swing and came back to visit the crowd. There comes the rats and they were fine. I was invited to Forsyth trip - Except - no, I Accepted - yes, she did too, but broke it. Now, I can say just anything you desire me to - "In Pig Latin" and other things too numerous to mention. Did I see a car with no lights - except every now and then yes, poor fellow - s's's - Now this is enough to slap on but did me - - - - - May - Yea

I had a fine time all day - Count came to History with me - then to lunch - on the lawn, home. Back to lawn, geometry, Peka and J.A.M. Home again and assembly - I there's that Will invite Bill or Stuffy or anyone else you want too. We all love you and want you to have a big time.

← This is for Sunday July 12.

Yes, we went and had a swell time. Got loaded with chiggers - Oh my. How I did get blistered.

Things seemed to be going fine when - Ellen and I ran off from school and went to opera. Max and Count met us in car. It was raining - Cyle and "Bobby Deal" were there. Stuffy skated a while - John & Reba went to get chairs for opera stage.

Well, Max wrote the compromise and I read it - I agreed but don't think he did - But wise men change their minds.

Finally, Daisy came and we scattered out. This was the night of the debate when Bachmeyer won. John got the medal. I didn't

 (Rather excuse)
 Remember how you tried to get stuff + I to leave in the car? why?

"No, Reba, Dad has to have the car in the morning to go to Mansfield, we must go home." Finally, we got started right. Turner had lost his motor meter. We started and Ralph was going to drive Max, Reba and John were in the back seat — Ralph, Flo, Warren were in front. I didn't go to sleep. We got started home at 11:40. We sure did do some driving. At about we had a puncture. Not a soul moved for a few hour?? No, minutes. Then Reba layed down and Max & I sat up a while. "Oh, my hand has gone to sleep." "I'll fix it and oh, what a thrill."

"I'm drifting back to Dreamland Cause I know you'll wait for me." "Yes, I'm waiting, dear."
"Suppose the Rose were You" - Florence, I know you deserved first place." We finally got home at Daisy's at 4.05 A.M. "It's 3:00 o'clock in the morning, I still do love you, dear." "At Dawning I love you."

Dear Harold (Bobby)

I haven't very much to say,
Upon this bright paper gay,
Although I went to drop you a line,
Your being a friend of mine.

I am writing a note to the rest of the gang, ^{as you tell me.} so I thought I would write to you.

You got a kind of late start yesterday didn't you? But I guess you got there all right.
Mrs. Hargis said you didn't get started till about four and I got home shortly after that and I sure wish I had made it a little sooner.

Florence's name was in the paper ^{yesterday} ~~you~~ ^{morning and evening} both. But I think she knows it.

Monday night I didn't go to sleep along time after I had gotten in bed and I heard you talking and walking by. You missed the last car didn't you? Well I am sorry but if I had just been thinking I would of thought it about time for the last car but it didn't seem late to me. ^{though that it was pretty} And anyway I guess Ray didn't want to run the street car as he had had enough exercise the day before. And it being very ~~unusual~~ for me to think you about had to miss it. ^{Ha! Ha!} It sure seems lonesome today with everybody gone back to Awa. But I guess you were glad to get back to school.

Did you get down there without having any hard luck?

I am not going to say anything ^{not nice} about Maxine for she is a good girl now isn't she???

And I am warning you again don't you tell anyone what I said.

please.

For goodness sakes! don't let anyone see this letter who will tell her and I don't want her to be mad at me for I like her. ^{It} tell you next time ^{when} I see you something.
 You can tell them ^{what} it is ^{and} if you want to.
 Now write before you come back for I love to get mail
 and I hope this finds
 you well from your trip
 being you went so far.
 I will close.

Your Truly,
 Warena (Babe)!!

P.S. Hoping to see you soon
 and please excuse my writing.

P. S. I forgot to tell you I have a new verse to 'aint Gonna Rain No more.
And it is quite the sardines
shimney. It goes as follows.

Woke up early one morning,
I looked upon the wall,
The fleas & bedbugs were having a game of ball.

The score was six to nothing.

The fleas were ahead,
But the bedbug knocked
a home run.

And landed out of bed.

Ha! Ha! Try it.

Won't you send me your picture
for my memory book - please -

This is your mother Begg I can't afford to wait them that way
Ha Ha

ADMIT ONE

Miss Dora Wilson is leaving tomorrow for Springfield to be ready for the opening of the Spring term at Teachers College. Miss Wilson expects to spend the full year at the College. Miss Mary Jane Hargis, teacher of the Latin and English courses of our high school will accompany her to Springfield to spend the week end vacation with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Frank Turner accompanied by her young nephew, Master Turner Silvey, motored to Springfield Friday. Master Turner visited over night with his sister Miss Florence Silvey, a Drury College student, and Mrs. Turner remained until Sunday with Mr. Turner who has been looking after business matters in that city for the past month.

PRUNING DEMONSTRATION

Prof. C. M. Williams, horticulture extension specialist from the University of Missouri, will give a pruning demonstration on grapes, apples and other fruit trees at the M. F. Silvey farm just west of Ava at 2:00 o'clock p. m. next Saturday.

Prof. Williams was secured for this demonstration through the efforts of Prof. C. E. Browning, vocational agriculture teacher in the Ava High School. The work will not only be instructive to fruit growers, but will be interesting as well, and a large attendance is much desired.

Don't forget the time and place.

High are the walls of Heaven
Deep are the depths of Hell.
Shame on the boy that kisses a girl
And then goes and tells.

This am from "Bobby Hunter Himself." In the happiest moments of his life. Why? K.K. Cause
 she was with me and
 nobody but Boy! Howdy!
 she didn't skip it. I'm not in an appropriate place for writing. Cause other things attract my attention. No! not the preacher's daughter but the doctor's daughter.

"You'll want me back
 that's all."

That's her exactly

This is all
